End of Semester Project

The end of semester project is made up of two components:
1. Essay- 50 points
2. Goals- 20 points

Both items will be attached in one document on Google Drive (shared with leherseth@osd.wednet.edu) and PRINTED.

DUE DATE: No later than Thursday, January 26th at the beginning of class.

_____

1. The Essay
- Five well written, thoughtful, and organized paragraphs
  - Paragraph 1: Intro
  - Paragraph 2, 3, and 4: Comment on your experience, new knowledge, or growth as a leader this semester (must use details and references to specific events, notes, or projects we have covered/completed). Each paragraph should have examples and reference various things! Do not repeat yourself!
  - Paragraph 5: Conclusion
- Typed, 11 or 12 point font in Times New Roman, Arial, or Calibri

This might help your thinking...
1. How has your character changed, developed, or solidified semester?
2. Have you enhanced, redirected, or changed your thinking? Have you realized anything new? What have you learned?
3. What type of leader are you now as compared to the beginning of the semester?

2. Goals
- Answer the following in complete sentences:
  - I would or would not like to return to Leadership for the following semester. If you would like to continue in class, explain why you would like the opportunity.
  - What legacy do you want to leave in our class? How are you going to make this happen?

- Write a goal for the following:
  - Choose a person you would like to get to know better in our class. Why and how are you going to hold yourself accountable?
  - Growing as leader- how can you challenge yourself next semester? (Can't think of anything? Check out your 8 Essentials survey…)
